Ref. No.: SVSU/25/SSIF/ 011

Date: 02/07/2025

Notice

In reference to notice SVSU/25/SSIF/003 issued on February 21, 2025, applications were invited from students of the session 2024-25 under the APJ Abdul Kalam Scholarship, sponsored by The Oswals Endowment.

The scrutiny committee has observed discrepancies in the documents provided by students of AY 2024-25 as detailed below:

Student Reg. No.	Student Name	Course Name	Documents to be submitted (Please carry Original as well)
24UGMLT111	Lokesh Kumar	B.Voc. Medical Laboratory Technology	Grandfather's IC produced, but father's name is not available on the Family ID of Grand Father.
24UGCEN115	Gautam	B.Tech (CE)	Income Certificate not provided; EWS status indicates an income of ₹6 lakh.
24UGMLT134	Vansh	B.Voc. Medical Laboratory Technology	12th Mark sheet is unclear – a clear copy required
24UGCEN162	Yash	B.Tech (CE)	Income certificate not provided

*Students are required to rectify these discrepancies within 3 working days from the issuance of this notification and submit the duly signed updated documents to the office of SSIF.

Additionally, in reference to notices SVSU/25/SSIF/005 issued on March 24, 2025, applications were invited from scholars of the academic year 2023-24. The committee has decided to continue their scholarships until course completion, subject to qualifying the minimum family income criteria.

In this regard, all scholars are required to submit the following documents to the SSIF office within 5 working days from the issuance of this notification:

1. An application stating your current course of study (Academic session 2024-25) duly signed by the Chairperson/HoD.
2. Your latest income certificate issued by the ADC-cum-DCIRO office.
